One thing that distinguishes man from the other animals on earth is his ability to come up with new ideas.

When it comes to solving problems between nations, or generations, all we really have to fall back on is this fragile hunk of human ingenuity.

More than anything else today we need the ability and the will to open our hearts to new ideas.

In that way we can get together again and make this personal planet of ours a better place to live in.

Getting Together At The Student Council Semi-Formal

The STUDENT COUNCIL took on a new format at the beginning of this year. Instead of the class electing four representatives, as a whole, representatives are now elected on a homeroom basis. These representatives, along with the President, Vice-President, and Secretary Treasurer of each class, make up the Council. In an effort to establish better communication between the Student Council and the student body, discussion periods between each homeroom and its representative were set up this year, and have been partially successful.

Traditionally people have thought of the NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY as an organization which simply emphasizes outstanding scholarship. They seem to forget that members of this society are chosen on the basis of leadership, character, and service to the school and community as well.

This year, under the continued guidance of Miss Donlan the society made a renewed effort to be recognized as an active rather than passive group. Their main service project for the year was the sponsoring of a Christmas party for the elderly of a local nursing home. The members of the society hoped that this spirit of community service would spread to other groups in the high school.

performance

The Dramatic Club of NAHS under the direction of Mr. McDonald, has done it again. They added a colorful note to the Christmas program and also put on an immensely successful full-length play. The Dramatic Club portion of the Christmas assembly, featuring a play written by a group of students, and several dramatic readings, was as important as it always is in expressing the joy and cheer of the holiday season.

Really big news this year was the Club's first musical, (in conjunction with the music department) of How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying. Performed in April, and starring Edward McGee and Laurel McMahon, the show was a fine example of a professional and entertaining production. The performances were the culmination of three months of hard work for Mr. McDonald, Mr. Savory, Miss Healey, the cast and the crew of the play.

The Dramatic Club also contributed to the annual Arts Festival, held in May.

The band, with its forty-seven regular members, also had a very full concert season. Besides the Christmas concert, the band presented two entertaining spring concerts which featured some of the senior players.

Several of the band members received exceptional distinction during the year. Bruce Bevans performed in the noted Greater Boston Youth Wind Ensemble, and medals went to Louis Lipomi and Linda Aubry for their outstanding performance in the Music Educators' Solo and Ensemble Festival.

The Math Club, although rather small this year, was made up of a group of dedicated students who have done very well in the Math League meets. These meets are held once a month at different schools, and are attended by other high schools in the area. The participants each take three of six possible ten-minute tests, each consisting of three problems. The total number of points received by each school determines the standings. Outstanding individual achievement is also recognized. The faculty advisors to the club are Mr. McGowan and Miss Hughes.

The Afro-American Society is advised by Mr. Stephen Bucu, and the officers are Willie Ratchford (President), Marilyn Woodman (Vice-President), and Pat Lucas (Secretary-Treasurer). The Society's main goal was to raise money so that it might function properly next year—buying books, going on field trips, bringing speakers to the high school—even making dashikies.

The years pass in a slow progression. A person thinks back to his high school days, and remembers events which stand out with the clarity of etchings on glass. Other events are more unfocused—blurred, just faintly recalled. He opens a book which recalls scores of these days and memories. This is his yearbook. He opens a book and sees a picture of one of the biggest games of the year. "Remember how we slaughtered them?" he thinks. Another page. Who is an N. A. Cheerleader?
 She is, first of all, someone who can sustain the grueling weeks of tryouts and the many afternoons of practice after the squad has been chosen. She is someone who has appearance, pep and personality. She is someone who can face the crowd with a smile and a cheer at the games. And, she is someone who knows the agony of defeat and the ecstasy of victory.

"We're No. 1!" If there is any team at N. A. H. S. that can say this year after year, it is the girls championship field hockey team. This year the girls battled to a first place tie with chief rival Andover, as both teams went undefeated. When the teams met during regular season play, they were stalemated at a 0-0 tie. A playoff game was scheduled to break the tie. The girls went into it ready and eager to win. They fought hard, and were well-matched. Just before the end of the first period, Pat Lawlor drove the ball into the Andover net for what proved to be the game winning point, as the final score totaled 1-0. An additional honor for the champs was the naming of three girls as all-stars: Pat Lawlor, Holly Demers and Claudia Turner.

J. V. FIELD HOCKEY

Playing in the shadow of the fine N. A. field hockey varsity, with its tradition of championship teams, must be a difficult task for the members of the junior varsity team. But the girls this year proved equal to the challenge, as they also finished in first place. Behind the leadership of co-captains Bev McCarty and Leslie Harris, and along with the coaching of Mrs. Dowe, the girls compiled a record of five wins, two losses and one tie.

A detailed record of the happenings of football 1970 might include the following high points:

The time when we slaughtered the Burlington "Red Devils," and the jubilant bus-ride home;

The last 29 seconds of the tension-filled Methuen game;

Phil Miller's brilliant interception at the Billerica game;

Bry Cardello's injury at Masconomet (when we'd used up all our time outs) and the refs called for time out in the last 10 seconds;

How we scored first against Andover;

The Knight on horseback riding the field; the fantastic rallies and the way the cheerleaders decorated the boys' locker room;

The choice of the new co-captains—Dave Lynch and Phil Miller;

The winning of the awards: The Knight Award, by Captain Joe Lawlor; the Squire Award, by Richard Powers; the Most Improved Player Award, by Mike Long; and the Best Back Award, by Bry Cardello.

J. V. FOOTBALL TEAM

The J.V. football team beat Methuen, tied Billerica, and were in contention in all the other games. The strongest part of the team was the defense, which allowed only ten points per game in the last half of the season.

There were no permanent captains, however, the following boys were outstanding throughout the entire season—Rick Turner, Bill Bushnell, Tom Emmett, Bill Canty, Art Murphy, and the recipient of the Most Valuable Player Award Todd Blevins.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

Coach Stone summed it up when he said, "These were a great bunch of boys to work with. I only had twenty boys to work with after the season got started, but they all worked hard . . ."

The freshman football team hustled all the way. They came up victorious against such tough rivals as Andover, Wilmington, and Methuen. One of the most tense games was against Masconomet. Co-captain Frank Cunningham threw a pass to co-captain Leif Korb that produced the only tie of the season—14 to 14.

The freshman football team has both a solid defense and offense with a strong running game. Cape Ann League, 1973, WATCH OUT!

BASKETBALL

The lights are dimmed, the national anthem is heard, and then . . . the introduction of the starting lineup of the North Andover Scarlet Knights. "Senior and Co-captain T. J. McEvoy, senior and co-captain Willie Ratchford, senior Fred Lumb, junior Jay Enright, and junior Pete Phelan," and then the game starts. The Knights shoot well, and have a strong defense. They have managed to come back from losses to Methuen and Billerica and defeat them the second time around. Of course, Andover . . . But again North Andover has gone to the Tech Tourney, finishing the season with a 15-5 record. And again coach Licare has led his Knights through an exciting season.

J. V. BASKETBALL

The J. V. basketball team, led by high scoring captain Bill LaBelle, ended their season with a record of 14 wins and only 4 losses. Much of this year's success is attributed to the fine coaching of Mr. Ficera, as well as, the skill and determination of each individual player. Some of those players, who contributed to the successful season were; Dave Leach, Tim and Tom Gaffney, Ray Patterson and Steve Lundquist.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

North Andover has an undefeated basketball team this year, as coach Strobel's freshman team romped to a 20-0 finish. They were the first freshman team in the history of the school to accomplish this, and also the first to win the Eastern Massachusetts Freshman Tournament. Co-captain Bill Utley, was chosen as the tournament's most valuable player. The other Co-captains were Andy Breen and Don Brasseur.

He walked into the cafeteria, where the mats had been laid out in preparation for the meet. The two teams were ready. He watched the captains come out to toss a coin—now the meet was ready to begin. He walked to his opponent, shook hands, crossed to the small circle and assumed the neutral wrestling position. He thought fast and decided what to do. A take down, a cradle, and he pinned his rival, winning 5 points for his team.

The wrestling team, coached by Mr. Crozier, had a good season, defeating such respected rivals as Methuen, Dracut, North Reading, Brooks, Greater-Lawrence Regional, and Hamilton-Wenham. Rick D'Elia, Captain, had the best won-lost record and placed in the sectional tournament.

The team expects to do even better next year in the Cape Ann League, in competition with teams more our size.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Five on five is the new form of girls basketball in the Merrimack Valley League. The girls this year had a tough season, but finished at the .500 mark, with a 4-4 record. Here is the starting lineup of the team and each girl's contribution:

Captain Lee Zappala—great ball control—she controls the whole game;

Pat Lawlor—consistency and spirit;

Sue Zagorski—points!

Claudia Turner—that knee;

Karen Barker—S-C-O-R-E—SCORE!

also:

Manager Jean Mackey—enthusiasm;

Coach Pamp—guidance and encouragement;

And all the other fine players—depth.

A TOUGH ACT TO FOLLOW

J. V. BASKETBALL

The girls junior varsity basketball team had a fine season, finishing second place in the League. Co-captain Tina Zahoruiko was the high scorer, while other reliable point-getters were Jane Brien and Cindy Marston. Jan Ventura, Donna Farrow, Marie Sangermano, Marcia Hennelley, Demetra Siopes, Jo-Ann Licare, Diane Smith, Maria Cassel, Cheryl Jones, Jayne Somers and Kris Clayton contributed to defense and ball-handling. Mrs. Seeley coached the team.

CROSS COUNTRY

Once there was a cross country team from the Kingdom of North Andover. This cross country team did what all cross country teams do—run. They ran so well they beat Wilmington, Burlington, Greater Lawrence Vocational, Methuen and Brooks. The king of the cross country team (also called "coach") was Mr. McDonald, and the princes were Mike Caffrey and Ted Maker (the uninformed thought they were "co-captains"). Harry Dow was Knighted after finishing in the top ten out of 98 runners. This cross country team finished in fifth place in the league championships, and thirteenth out of 27 teams in the Eastern Mass. championships held at the White Stadium in Boston. Needless to say, they all lived happily ever after.

1970 GOLF

Someone once said that a man has to have something to worry about, and that when he has no problems he invents them, so he worries over his golf scores. Well, some people, such as the N.A.H.S. golf team members do worry about their golf scores as can be seen by their excellent record. They had a winning season, finishing second place, with a 6-3 record. They also had a surprise for other teams—a girl, Ruthann Donahue. Matched against the best player on the opposing team, she consistently came out on top. Other outstanding players were Mark Blevins and Dan Daly. Coach Buco says the team is now looking forward to another season, this time in the Cape Ann League.

BASEBALL

What is it like being on the North Andover High baseball team?

It is knowing the triumphs of the Methuen, Dracut, and Tewksbury games. It is feeling the disappointment of losing seven games—by one run. It is seeing fine playing by such staunch athletes as Co-captains Gary Samia and Steve Foster. Most of all, it is the sense of comradeship and cooperation one achieves through working with the members of the team.

THIRD ROW: Claudia Turner, Susan Zagorski, Mary Julie Connor, Chris Clayton, Mary Alice Rock.

The girls' softball team is a team that came from ninth to fourth place in a single season—behind the forceful pitching of co-captain elect Donna Martin and the heads-up plays of the rest of the girls. Its record of four and four doesn't tell the whole story. The girls got off to a bad start, losing their first four. But then the team seemed to jell, and the turning point was a victory over Methuen—an exciting win, 4-3—in extra innings. From then on the girls had a perfect record. Pat Lawlor, Lee Zappala, Claire Giard, Claudia Turner and co-captains elect Donna Martin and Sue Mason are among the returning players. Miss Pamp coached the team.

The future arrives sooner at Raytheon.

When you work at the forefront of technology, you work on "tomorrow" every day.

That's what we do at Raytheon. With amazing results. For example, Radarange® microwave ovens for the home. A miniature furnace the size of a two-pound coffee can. Motionless radars that "see" everywhere at once.

Our facilities stretch around the world. And our activities extend from space exploration to pollution control.

Raytheon. The company that makes things happen.

Perfect attendance.

"Won't she ever shut up?"

"One plus one—um'm-m-m. Let's see one plus one? Um-mmm"

"How do I love thee/Let me count the ways."

"I don't care what she says. It's my ball and I'm going home."

"One cornbeef on rye!"

"I'm proud to be your Valentine."

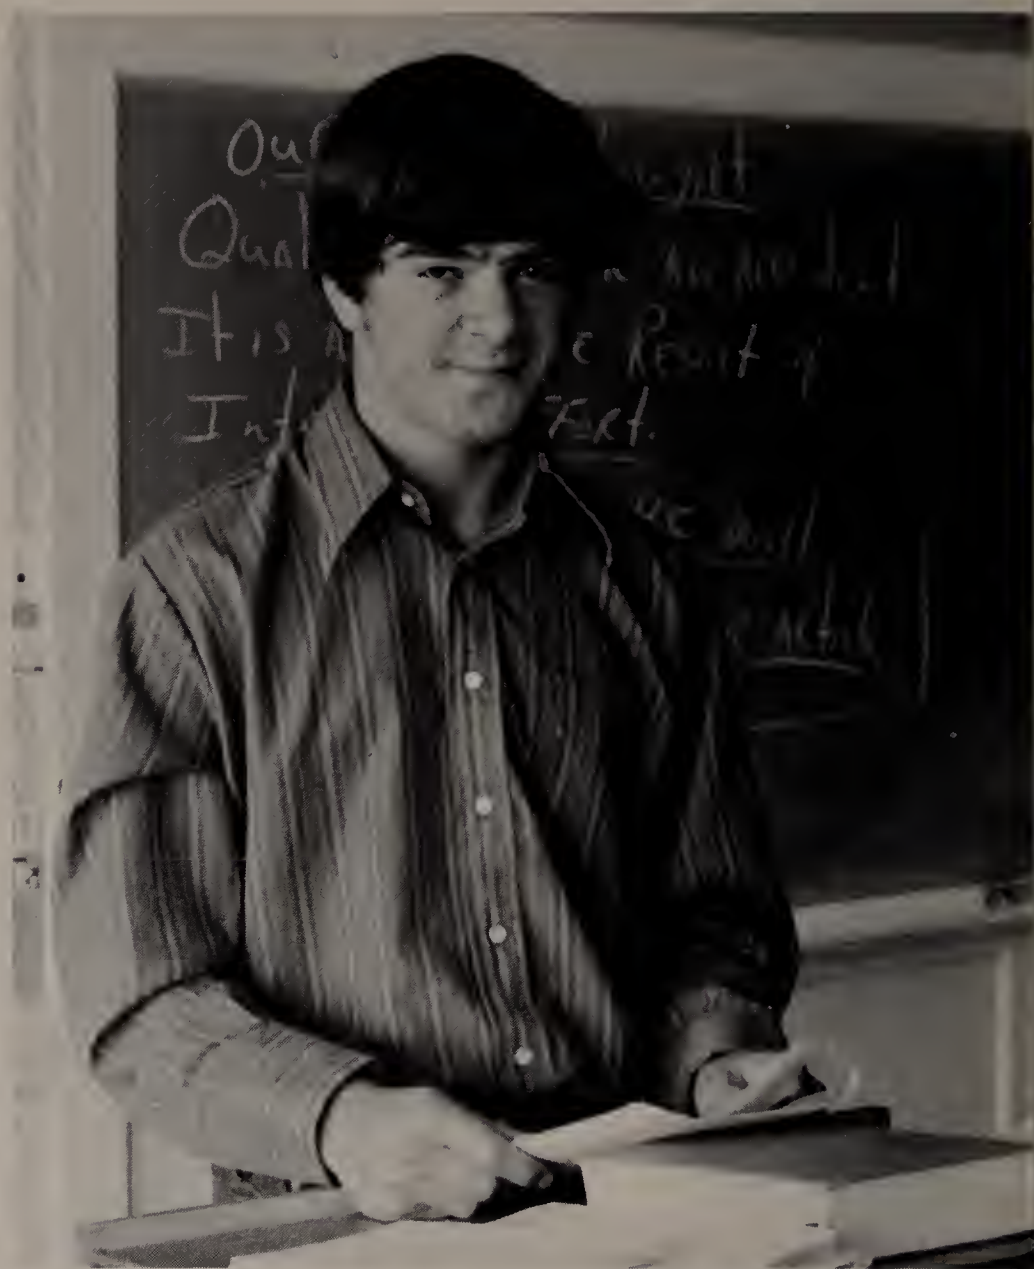

"I knew I should have used Ban today."

Up Up and awa-a-a-y.

Sneak in a good one!

"Let's play school. I'm the teacher."

"One more slide like that and I'll sock you."

"Come here, you!"

"I told you to lay off that stuff."

"Why do we have to have rehearsals so early in the morning."

"Mirror, Mirror on the wall . . ."

"I'll run if nominated."

"Abba—Kadabra."

"Put $10 on Susie Q. in the fifth."

"And now for the next number!"

"Sorry, but I never ride double."

"You should see the other kid!"

"There he goes, the boy of my dreams!"

"What, again! You just went five minutes ago!"

"I have a matching jacket too."

"The men's room is away over there."

"Where are you—2:15???"

... I'll get even with you ...

That ole evil eye

Scalpel, scissors, sponge—oops!

Lobster again?

"What time is it if the big hand is on the 3 and the little hand is on the 2?"

Hit 'im again, hit 'im again, harder, harder . . .

!@@@!?@#$*Andover!?!

Poor Superman . . . Lois doesn't like him anymore.

"How dare you stick your tongue out at me!"

Ah-ha, Caught in the act!

Simon says: Put your hands on your head.

"I never knew bread had bones."

"Deal me in!"

"Ee-e-e-k?"

"He's a HULL of a guy!"

"Howdee!"
